

An aerial photograph of a lake system. A concession building is located on the upper shore, indicated by a yellow arrow. Four orange dots are placed in the water, representing areas where Christmas trees were added. The surrounding area is densely wooded.

Concession Building

Orange dots represent areas where Christmas trees were added in winter 2009 to provide structure for fish , and increase bank angling opportunities