

Outdoor
ALABAMA

May 2005

One of the most beautiful sights in Alabama is the Cahaba lily (Hymenocallis coronaria) in full bloom. This plant can be found in swift waters of the Cahaba River near West Blocton and along tributaries of the Coosa, Tallapoosa and Black Warrior Rivers. Photo by Kim G. Nix

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
1 First Quarter Moon	2	3	4	5	6	7 Wildflower Day at DeSoto State Park
8 Mother's Day New Moon	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16 First Quarter Moon	17	18	19	20	21 Weeks Bay Reserve River Cleanup
22	23 Full Moon	24	25	26	27	28
29	30 Memorial Day Last Quarter Moon	31	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Alabama bass fishing peaks in May and June. ■ Trouble with your fish pond? Call 334-242-3471 to seek advice from a fisheries biologist. ■ Wehle Nature Centers in Bullock County and Historic Blakeley State Park open May 7, 14 and 21. ■ National Safe Boating Week is May 21-27. ■ Share the Beach Program begins with the start of Sea Turtle Nesting Season. May 1st - Oct. 31st 			April 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30	June 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30